

Release #01-003
PUBLIC AFFAIRS OFFICE
4th BRIGADE COMBAT TEAM
82nd AIRBORNE DIVISION
Fort Bragg, NC 28310-5000
Phone (910) 432-3239/907-2826

January 22, 2009

Release # 01-003
For Immediate Release

Priest Paratrooper fast-tracks Soldier to go to Chaplain School

By Sgt. Stephen Decatur
4th Brigade Combat Team Public Affairs Office 82nd Airborne Division

Fort Bragg, N.C. - 090121-A-2388D-35 After being given a leap promotion from specialist to first lieutenant, Godwin Iheke, a chaplain's assistant with Headquarters and Headquarters Company, 2nd Battalion, 508th Parachute Infantry Regiment, 4th Brigade Combat Team, 82nd Airborne Division shakes hands with Capt. Brad McCoy Jan. 21 during the weekly chaplains' community luncheon at the Watter's Center on Fort Bragg. Iheke, an ordained Catholic priest originally from Nigeria, will go on to the U.S. Army Chaplain Center and School at Fort Jackson, S.C., to become an Army chaplain. Iheke first became interested in becoming a chaplain while serving as a contract priest at Ramstein Air Base, Germany. (U.S. Army Photo by Sgt. Stephen Decatur)